

Invites you to...

The 1st Annual Winifred Burks-Houck Women's Professional Leadership Symposium

2010 National Conference
Marriott Marquis Hotel, Atlanta, GA
March 29, 2010
4:00-6:00pm

Overview

Winifred Burks-Houck

The Winifred Burks-Houck Professional Leadership Award is the first NOBCChE award inspired by and created to honor the contributions of African American Women in science and technology. The Winifred Burks-Houck Professional Leadership Symposium aims to honor Winifred A. Burks-Houck, the first female president of NOBCChE, by highlighting the scientific achievements, creativity, leadership, and community service of two NOBCChE-affiliated professional women and a NOBCChE undergraduate and graduate student working towards a degree in chemistry, chemical engineering, or a related field.

Highlighted Speaker

Gwendolyn Boyd

In her career as an engineer at Johns Hopkins University's Applied Physics Laboratory, and in her dedicated community service, Gwendolyn E. Boyd has been a prominent advocate for women's equality and for the recruitment of black Americans into science and engineering. She served as the 22nd national president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Gwendolyn Boyd is a graduate of Yale University, MS, mechanical engineering, 1979 and Alabama State University, BA, mathematics, 1977.

4:00-
4:20

Welcome & Introduction

NOBCChE Women's Leadership & the Legacy of Winifred Burks-Houck
Dr. Marquita Qualls
Sr. Partner, Entropia Consulting

4:25-
4:55

Highlighted Talk

Ms. Gwendolyn Boyd
The Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory

4:55-
5:10

Presentation of Awards

Winifred Burks-Houck Leadership Awardees

5:10-
5:55

Panel Discussion:

More information Coming Soon!

For More Information: visit www.NOBCChE.org

